We have always been asked this question – How does Willing Hearts sustain itself? In truth, it is with the generous support from friends, volunteers, donors, sponsors and just about anyone who believes in our cause. We would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to each and every one for your generosity and continuous support since we started!

About Willing Hearts

We are a secular, non-denominational and non-affiliated charity.

 > ABOUT US

Bē

A secular, non-affiliated charity, Willing Hearts is wholly run by volunteers, apart from a handful of staff. It operates a soup kitchen that prepares, cooks and distributes about 7,000 daily meals to over 70 locations island wide, 365 days a year. Beneficiaries include the elderly, the disabled, low income families, children from single parent families or otherwise poverty stricken families, and migrant workers in Singapore.

Willing Hearts was registered as a society with the Ministry of Home Affairs from February 2005 to Aug 2022 and as a charity with the Ministry of Social and Family Development since December 2008. On 11 August 2022, Willing Hearts was incorporated as a Company with Limited Guarantee (CLG), obtained the Charity status and IPC (Institution of Public Character) status on 4 October 2022.

In addition, Willing Hearts extends the following services to its beneficiaries:

- Dental Care
- Traditional Chinese Medicine Treatments
- Optical Care
- Bereavement Services

Vision

Improving the lives of the underprivileged and marginalized by providing them with their “daily bread” and to help them become useful members of our society.

Mission

To provide daily meals and other support services to the underprivileged, the needy, and other marginalized members in Singapore, and to assist and guide them towards rehabilitating and reinstating themselves as useful members of our society.
